

Registration To Begin on January 28

Dean Earle M. Bigsbee, chairman of the Committee on Registration, announced that registration dates are set for Jan. 28 and 29.

"This year, the entire Technology Building will be used for registration," said Dean Chauncey Fish, a member of the Committee. "All advisers will be present to help the students."

This semester's final grades must be obtained in the basement of Fones Hall, in order to be admitted to registration. All students will receive appointments for registration time in the mail. In case of failure to keep this appointment, the student will be charged a $5.00 late fee.

Tuition and the $6.00 activity book fee will be required at this time. The accident insurance policy rate has been reduced from $8.00 to $5.00.

Sweetheart Hop Slated For Feb. 15

One of the most renowned bands in New England, Bob Halprin and his orchestra, will play at the University Sweetheart Dance which will be held on Feb. 15 at the Ritz Ballroom.

Nomination blanks for the Sweetheart Queen will be available at Marina Hall, the Snack Bar, and the Social Activities office starting Jan. 13. The blanks, accompanied by a 5x7 photo, must be submitted to the Social Activities Office by Feb. 6. The Sweetheart will be crowned at the dance.

Robert C. Levine is the general chairman for the dance. Other chairmen are: Dick Marks, publicity; Arthur Hardy, programs; Connie Marino, decorations; Sharon Bramson, arrangements; Ronald L. Brandenburg, sweetheart elections.

Music Dept. Gives Recital Tonight

A recital by students in the music department will be presented at the Jewish Community Center tonight at 8:30 for the Center Music Club. There will be no charge and all University students and faculty members are cordially invited.

Students on the program are Edward Leach, pianist; Jane Marshall, violinist; and Barbara Voorhees, pianist.

The dates of future programs will be posted in the Snack Bar. The department has also expressed a desire for more members for the Music Club—not necessarily music majors.

Special activities of the club for next semester include a trip to New Haven to hear the 9th Symphony.

Students to Get Discount Service

A blessing to UB's budget wise students will make its formal entry at the beginning of the new semester in the form of the Student Discount Service.

Already a dozen stores have been contracted to give students discounts on their purchases which range from 10% to 33%.

Cards will be passed out at registration which will entitle holders to discounts at stores listed on the reverse side. The cards are non-transferable and will be renewed at the beginning of the Fall semester.

Both Day and Evening Division students are eligible to become members of this plan.

This will enable the purchaser to get discounts at member stores all over the country, which have subscribed to SDS program.

The stores already contracted are: Anthony's Beauty Studio, 33% on permanents, shampoos, manicures and haircuts and 20% on all merchandise. Gleason's Jewelers, 15% on all merchandise and watch repairs. Michael Angelo barber shop offers 20% on haircuts, shaves, and massages. Stevens Clothiers, 15% on all cash sales and 10% on all charged items. Park Pharmacy, 15% on all prescriptions and 10% on all other items except liquors. Crown Grocery Store on Park Ave. 10% on all purchases. Ed Sheehan's Tire and Battery Co. on the corner of John and Park

Seniors to Meet With Dean Ropp

There will be a meeting of College of Arts and Science Seniors with Dr. Clarence Ropp, dean of the college, Tuesday, Feb. 5, in Carlson Lecture Hall at 10 A. M., relative to all students expecting to graduate in June. Plans are to go over the requirements and discuss any generalities these students may have to ask about.

Loyola Is Possible Student Center

(Special to THE SCRIBE)

Eleven chairmen and division heads have been named for the Student Center Building Fund Drive scheduled to get under way on campus March 3. The committee is headed by Harvey Seltzer, '53, vice-chairman Phyllis Montanaro, '54, and Arthur

AGP Donates TV To Center Building

A large projection-type television set has been donated to the student center building by Alpha Gamma Phi fraternity and Rollin's Women's Apparel Shop. The set will be in the development office until the student center building is ready in the fall.

Men to Invade Girls' Dorms

Milford Hall, Stratford Hall, and Waldemere Hall will be converted into men's dorms to accommodate the foreign exchange students who will be here in the spring. From sixty to eighty students, mostly men, are expected.

The exchange students will stay for a complete year. During their first semester, they will take two courses: English, and a general academic survey course. The E. C. A. will pay their tuition, and they will work to earn their living expenses.

The E. C. A. exchange plan is the brainchild of two former UB instructors, Mr. Chester Bain and Mr. Arthur Thexton.

Girls now living in Waldemere, Stratford, and Milford Halls will move to the new women's residence hall on Linden Ave., as well as to the other dorms.

Directory Proofs Out

The proofs of the 1952 student directory are now posted on the bulletin boards in Fones and Fairfield Hall and the Tech Building.

If any changes are needed in the spelling or addresses, they should be made on these proofs.

Draftable Students Must See Dean Fish

Every student subject to the draft should register with Dean Fish. The number and address of the board must be furnished so that the University may mail the board the information so that the student can be properly classified by his board.

Under the new law, "college students may be deferred until they complete their academic year." Draft boards may defer students on the basis of the score on the College Qualification test on their class standing at the end of their academic year. If you have not taken your test, apply before March 10 for the one to be given on April 24.

Several students have received notice to take the Pre-Induction Physical examination. If you receive one, do not become alarmed. The law requires that this be done.

For students whose boards are located at considerable distance from our campus with travel and loss of time involved, arrangements may be made with the local boards of Bridgeport to have the examination through them.

Some students have been told to report on a day when one of their final examinations is scheduled. There are three boards in Bridgeport. They are sending men on three different days. You may not have an examination on one of the other days and can arrange for the change.

Keep Dean Fish informed of every notice from your board. In general, all students may finish their academic year if they did not receive Induction Orders and have them cancelled last year. Some of these students have been deferred this year by some boards. If you receive orders, take them to Dean Fish without delay. He has the privilege of appealing for your deferment.

"Dutch" Hardie, '52; Division Chairmen Curt Brotherton, '52; Ronald Brandenburg, '53; Richard Handler, '53; Virginia Tennant, '52; Ruth Bowden, '52; Ted Huminski, '52; Beth Drexler, '54; Bernard Eisenberg, '52.

Student Committees began raising money for a Student Center Building in 1948. A building in operation in the fall of 1952 became a possibility with the acquisition of Loyola Hall last October. Since that time unofficial student, faculty, and alumni committees have been working on the project investigating Loyola Hall's possibilities and the possibilities of several other buildings.

At a recent meeting with the Board of Trustees, Loyola was officially made available for use as a Student Center. Following this action the Student Committee was enlarged to include a great number of campus leaders. This group has met and has inspected Loyola Hall.

Also assisting was Alpha Phi Omega fraternity, which greatly assisted the project by cleaning up the building. The total project as outlined to the Board of Trustees would involve $75,000 but the Trustees have announced their intention of allowing renovation to get under way as soon as $43,000, which includes renovation

University Wins AAC Recognition

President James H. Halsey has announced that UB has been voted into membership in the Association of American Colleges at the 38th annual meeting of the Association held at the Hotel Statler, in Washington, last Wednesday and Thursday.

This national recognition came shortly after UB was elected to membership in the New England Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, on Dec. 7. A college must hold membership in its regional accrediting association to become a member of the national group.

One of the oldest of all higher education associations, The Association of American Colleges was organized in 1915 and now includes a total membership of 675 colleges and universities. The purpose of the association is to promote higher education in all its forms in the colleges of liberal arts and sciences and to help member institutions to make their programs more effective.

The University was represented at the meeting by President Halsey and Vice-Pres. Henry Littlefield.

Loyola Is Possible Center

This additional "shot in the arm" by the hands of the Trustees brings the money and pledges on hand from the previous student and alumni drives to a total of $18,000. This leaves a little more than $25,000 to be obtained by drives on the campus and among the alumni and parents this spring.

Sketches showing how Loyola Hall will look when renovated are being prepared and will be printed in the next issue of The Scribe. According to the current plans of the various committees mentioned above, the building will be renovated from top to bottom.

The front fence will be removed and the hedges cut down so that a spacious front lawn and entrance will be provided. The front columns will be renovated, a number of basic renovations to the building will be made, and the exterior will be painted white.

BASEMENT FOR RECREATION

The basement will be used for recreation. The first floor will be opened up. The removal of several of the partitions will provide a large open cafeteria and lounge area. Eating facilities will include hot meals throughout the day so that a snack bar as well as a restaurant counter will be provided.

The second floor will include two large additional lounging rooms which can be opened up into one to provide an additional large meeting room, similar to the Mechanical Drawing Lab. Also on the second floor there will be offices for student activities and a ladies' lounge.

The third floor will include a room for interfraternity headquarters, for campus club use, two general conference rooms, and a room for NSA and the campus chest.

ENLARGEMENT SEEN

Included in the thinking on the entire project are plans for eventual enlargement of Loyola Hall. The building stands on property 200 feet wide and 350 feet in depth so that it will be possible later to build an addition on both sides.

There have been indications from several groups already that they will be willing to help in the renovation of part of the building, such as the first-coat painting of one of the rooms. If groups do this, it will, of course, reduce the amount of money necessary for renovation of the building.

Students who wish to volunteer for service on solicitation committees should contact any of the chairmen or Mr. Olive in the Development Fund office.

Another First As UB Show Goes on Road

By Dom Salinaro

The Office of Campus Productions has realized another of its ambitions this week—that of going on the road.

On Monday night, OCP's Circle Players presented their first performance of the hilarious comedy, "A Wedding," by John Kirkpatrick during the "University of Bridgeport Night" at the Roger Ludlowe High School in Fairfield. The play was well received by an enthusiastic capacity audience.

The Circle Players include John Schaffner, Mary Lou Donahue, Chuck Levine, Mary-Ellen Bruno, Leo Muldoon, Anne Yeronakis, Delores Ludka and Dom Salinaro. They are a group of ambitious students who got together with a good script and decided to perform the play at various social events in and around Bridgeport.

Briefly, the story is concerned with the trials and tribulations of a flustered bridegroom as he searches for his collarbutton, minutes before the ceremony. Instead of helping in the search, the best man and the groomsmen only succeed in causing a near nervous breakdown of the groom and a classic word battle between the bride and groom.

Each time the play moves to another one night stand, furniture, props, costumes, etc., have to go. The ever capable Dick Kalm, Pete Brainard, and Robert Shropshire are on hand to see that every piece of equipment is loaded onto the panel truck. The cast is responsible for the smaller props and their costumes. At the appointed time, everyone is set to go—"road company" style.

By FRED DILENDIK

Starting with the Greek Letter dance scheduled for Friday, Feb. 8, there will occur a galaxy of fraternity and school dances as well as mid-Winter play that will run every week end till May 9. All told, approximately nine fraternity and sorority dances, three school affairs, and the play are on the agenda.

INTER-FRATERNITY Council—The Council was mostly concerned with the Greek Letter Dance during its last session. The dance is open to all persons who are members of a fraternal organization on the college level.

It will be held on Feb. 8 at Glorietta Manor with Joey Zelle providing the music. The tickets are $2.50. IFC representatives were given tickets for distribution.

ALPHA GAMMA PHI—will have new officers taking over at the beginning of the Spring semester. Election results were: Ed Whelan, president; Bob Nolan, "veep"; Lionel MacAbe, secretary; Fred Dilendik, treasurer; Nicholas Levycky, corresponding secretary; Morgan Rehrig, Gordon Adams, Jack Kelley, John Nute, "Dutch" Hardy, membership committee; and Herb Lampert directing athletic activities.

DELTA EPSILON BETA—started off the Christmas season in a good way. The children at the Hall Home Settlement were recipients of gifts, candy and movies from Santa Claus. A very nice gesture, gentlemen.

KAPPA BETA RHO—has two new officers, Frank Anastas replaced Harry Yarsen as president and Curt Brotherton is handling the vice-presidential duties. The boys of KBR held a cocktail party after the Christmas dance. Bob Pugh's home was the scene of the activity. A basket of fruit was sent to Clarence Tubby because of an injury.

PI OMEGA CHI—held a New Year's Eve party at Marilyn Handman's home. That is a new twist. Get well wishes have been sent to two of the fraternity's ailing member: Ed Pettit and Bob Levine.

SIGMA LAMBDA CHI—At the first meeting of the new year elections were held; elected to office were: Pres. Frank La Guisa; Vice-Pres. Bud Layton; Treas. Bob Sohegian; Sec. Dave Miller; Pledge

'Points' Proposal Vetoed in SCAC

Having been vetoed by the SCAC, the very controversial point system governing extra-curricular activities was ousted by the Student Council by a vote of 15-0-2, at the last meeting before Christmas vacation.

Ronald Brandenburg, chairman, explained the reasons for the opposition to the point system. The policy would, the SCAC felt, negate rather than foster student leadership. The plans that were submitted, in the estimation of the Committee, would have prevented active members from wholeheartedly participating in their groups.

The SCAC advised that a recommendation, through the Student Council to the Division of Student Personnel, urge the strict enforcement of the probation rules. SCAC further suggested that leadership be taught on campus, as an affirmative step to greater student spirit.

Masters Mark Ritter and Marty Fleckner.

Plans are being made for a new pledge period and beer parties. Invitations will be sent out at the beginning of the new semester.

Don't forget to get in on the "Once in a lifetime" offer before it is too late. This offer will be open to girls as well as fellows.

SIGMA PHI ALPHA—Healy's barn was the scene of a stag party given by the SPAs to send off Frank Castellucci and Don Marquand who are graduating this February. Harvey Seltzer was host of a cocktail party the evening of the Christmas formal. Plans are being formulated for a bowling party.

THETA EPSILON—members are sporting a new emblem, crest or insignia, whichever you choose to say. As a point of information, study the shield design and you will notice that it is divided into four parts. Each of these divisions represent an ideal. The four ideals being Loyalty, Purity, Sisterhood and Honesty. Who could ask for anything more? White jackets to match will be obtained soon. During the first of next semester TE will initiate their pledges.

IFC Mans Pots Of Xmas Cheer

The UB Interfraternity Council launched a program of good cheer during the Christmas holidays. Representatives of the 12 fraternities manned Salvation Army kettles at strategic points in the greater Bridgeport area.

Weylister Girls Form New Club

Joanne Whitehurst was presented with the prize of an Esterbrook pen by Dr. Marie Jaeger as the student dubbed the newly formed Weylister Secretarial School's organization, the "Pen and Keys Club." The main purpose of the group is the bringing together of all the school's secretarial-studies majors.

At the meeting, Sandra Rothenberg was elected chairman for future monthly meetings. The following have been elected as a coordinating group of student representatives: Phyllis Montanero, Esther Friedman, Agnes Rutkus, Esther Waxman, Elvira Monte, and Sally Scharfstein.

Learn To Read Now

One of the largest and most beneficial branches of the University is the Reading Clinic located in Westport Hall. Under the direction of Miss Gladys L. Persons, the Reading Lab conducts classes specifically designed to teach students how to read quickly and thoroughly so that the printed material is retained by the reader long after the book covers are closed.

Although many young children are attending the Reading Lab, very few students are taking advantage of this opportunity to further their reading ability—a disturbing situation when so many students have difficulty keeping up with all of their reading assignments or find it close to impossible to retain what they read for more than a few hours. There are many students who admit to remembering close to nothing immediately after reading a chapter.

Perhaps a lot of the students who have been failing courses have not realized that the Reading Clinic is for their benefit as well as for the grade school and high school students. The children are lucky to have the benefits of such a Clinic before they reach the college level.

But students already at the University—with only a year or so left to complete their formal education—will, for the most part never learn to enjoy efficient reading if they do not do so now.

Visit the Reading Lab now and take advantage of its invaluable opportunities and you will undoubtedly raise your grades and further your enjoyment. Learn to read correctly and you will even find time to read books other than texts during the busy school months.

Do not graduate from college and degenerate to merely limiting your reading desires and abilities to a daily newspaper like the majority of Americans. The wealth of all man's knowledge is recorded in books.

$200, Production Offered for Play

A prize of $200 is being offered to stimulate the writing of original plays by college students and other residents of Connecticut. The prize awaits the winner of the second annual Playwrights Festival sponsored by the management of the Oval in the Grove Summer theater in Farmington.

This winning play will also be scheduled for production at the Oval in the Grove, according to contest rules. These rules may be obtained from the secretary of Connecticut Theater, Inc., 49 Pearl St., Hartford. Copies have also been sent to college libraries and Drama departments.

The contest entry deadline is March 1 and all plays must be full length. College students and faculty members are eligible regardless of where their permanent home is located. Entries should be sent as soon as possible to Mrs. Helen P. Skinner, festival director, 110 Tanner St., Manchester, Conn.

UB Debaters Defeat 'Point'

The UB debating team has returned from a successful visit to West Point where Sandra Rothenberg and Will Land upheld the honor of the Purple and White.

Sandra Rothenberg has been elected to replace graduating Will Land as president of the Society. Mark Ritter was elected debate chairman and Alex Psychoyos is the new Secretary-Treasurer.

Yugoslavian Counsellor Visitor to University

By DON GOLD and
DICK HANDLER

Mr. Ljubo Drndic, counsellor and director of the Yugoslavian Information Center in New York, spoke to several student groups and classes on Jan. 9.

Mr. Drndic's visit was sponsored by the Sociology Colloquium and the Political Relations Forum for the purpose of better understanding between the American people and Yugoslavian people.

In the official party were Mr. Drndic, Miss Nina Nintie, secretary of the Yugoslavian Information Center, an aide de campe, and a private chauffeur.

Mr. Wendall Kellogg, public relations director of the University; and Dr. Joseph Roucek, chairman of the department of sociology and political science, were hosts and guides to the special guests.

Accompanied by Joan Hutchinson, Roz Rappaport, Bea DuPont, and Arline Kaplan, the party visited the campus. After a special luncheon at Marina, the Yugoslav delegate held a press conference.

At this session, Mr. Drndic proved not only to be a well informed individual, but an interesting one, as he answered questions on everything from Pepsi Cola to Cominform governments.

EDUCATION
In answer to several questions on the topic of education, Mr. Drndic made it known that 60% of all Yugoslavian college students are attending school on scholarships—government, gorup, industrial, and private.

He also revealed that there are approximately 60,000 students in colleges and universities in Yugoslavia, as contrasted to only 18,000 before World War II.

Another fact showing the steps being taken in education is the reduction in illiteracy. Prewar figures showed that 40% of the population were illiterate. This figure has now dropped to 6%.

POLITICS
Mr. Drndic said that Yugoslavia is free from Fascism. "It is hated by all the people," he emphasized. There is a strong feeling against Russia, as the Yugoslav people know from first-hand experience what Russian rule means.

On the topic of government control, Mr. Drndic hastened to point out that decentralization was being undertaken in ownership of newspapers, manufacturing plants, mines, etc.

He also stated that Yugoslavia is "a Socialist country trained to build Socialism. It is going in a completely opposite direction from Russia. We couldn't accept satellite statehood, although we welcomed the Russians in our fight against Fascism . . . The biggest threat to the peace of Yugoslavia," he asserted "is Cominform countries and Russia. Russia wanted to exploit us. We have never been a satellite in the sense that Czechoslovakia and Bulgaria are today."

TITO
"Tito is a leader. I saw him as a leader of the government," the young diplomat stated. He added that Tito is a Yugoslav hero, not a Russian puppet. He stated that Tito is not a Russian trained leader, but it a Yugoslavian, elected by the people and rules the country with the country's interest at heart.

When asked about his impressions of America, he admitted that he first saw this country as most of Europe sees it. "America is too often taken as a country of Coca-Cola, Pepsi Cola, Seven-Up, Chicago gangster, and bad Hollywood movies."

In reference to the latter, he talked of the moving picture "The Chetniks," which dealt with the fallacious and mythological adventures of Gen. Draja Mahailovitch, a man Mr. Drndic called pro-Nazi and a representative of a decrepit monarchy.

Gen. Mahailovitch faced a firing squad after he was found guilty of being a traitor to his country. "Even Churchill and Conservative Britons who have seen documentary evidence, go along with this," he brought out.

On the subject of the Russian threat of war, Mr. Drndic stated that "there is not such a great threat of war as there was two or three years ago. The more time we have to prepare, the better a chance we have for peace."

Dear Editor:

In the December 6 issue of the SCRIBE, a letter was directed to the editor concerning a wasteful, meaningless, and vulgar musical production known as "Campus Thunder." As for musicals being wasteful—no person will deny the merits of Shaw and Shakespeare—but who can say that the talents of Rodgers and Hammerstein, Jerome Kern, and Cole Porter were wasted.

It is a well known fact that "Campus Thunder" is rated as one of the top college productions of the eastern seaboard. No production, no matter how great, of Shaw or Shakespeare, would bring the prestige and reputation for showmanship and accomplishment that "Campus Thunder" has brought to the University of Bridgeport, along with the good continuity of public relations.

It is a very comfortable chair that the Sunday morning football coaches occupy. If any constructive criticism is directed to the Office of Campus Productions, there is no doubt in my mind that it would receive careful consideration.

As for the universities that do produce plays of a serious vein, please take note, it is not the universities that chose the productions, but usually a dramatic society.

Mr. Abramo, perhaps you remember a play called "Lilliom" produced last Spring by the University of Bridgeport. I wonder if you are one of those people who did not attend this "drama" and left us 'high and dry with an empty house."

One question that demands an answer—What was vulgar in "Campus Thunder?" In this day and age who can take a puritanical stand about a musical comedy?

With all due respect for one man's opinion, I refer to the comments of praise from The New York Times and Mr. J. J. Shubert, both recognized authorities.

"Campus Thunder" has, and I hope will continue to bring forth the idea that University of Bridgeport students can do constructive projects.

Hats off to "Campus Thunder," may its rumble echo from coast to coast.

DICK KALM.
AL ZAVADSKY.

I used to read letters such as this in the SCRIBE; letters from servicemen expressing their delight and appreciation when receiving a copy of the paper. There are no words to express just how wonderful I felt when I received my copy of the SCRIBE here at Sampson Air Force Base. For me, the SCRIBE has been one of the brighter spots during basic in "The Wild Blue Yonder."

With best wishes for a successful year,

Time flies. But where to? Another year. It's '52! With a minimum of philosophizing, it seems like yesterday when 1951 turned the corner and appeared on the scene. If time flies any faster, we will soon be using years as months. God luck to all of you during this new year and good hunting.

During the Christmas vacation and since the last issue was published, we students;

... watched our TERRIFIC BASKETBALL TEAM beat Fairfield U., our local rival in basketball circles, by 19 points, in an exciting game. If this doesn't bring students to want to attend these games, and watch this team, the greatest in the history of UB basketball, win, lose, or draw from here on in, then nothing will. You've paid for your student activities book, why not use it?

... attended the Christmas Ball, and while dancing to the music of Tony Pastor, admired the excellent job of decorating done under the direction of Lee Bifield and her committee.

... heard a few short stories as this one related by Don Marchette. "I'll see you," said our hero, as he laid down four aces in a game of strip poker.

... went to parties such as Dave Howard's after the Christmas Ball or Sternchein-Flashenburghs' Hors D'Ouvres before the dance.

... became engaged as did Isabelle Vorzimer to Hank Swyer, and Temi Rothstein to Al Maline. Both girls are getting married this Spring and are leaving school this semester.

... joined the parade of girls leaving UB. Marlene Finklestein is transferring to Miami U., Joan Topfitz, Verna Mattes, Fran Rosenthal, and Helen Schiffman are all leaving for one reason or another. (7 girls leaving Southport Hall).

... were surprised to hear that Stratford, Waldemere, and Milford Halls will be stamping grounds for men not only between the hours of 7 and 10 o'clock but for all hours. (Being converted to men's dorms).

UB Lassie Basketeers Humble Fighting Faculty Five, 26-24

By VIC MUNIEO

The season's greatest basketball upset occurred in the Armory on the night of Dec. 19, when a group of talented and beautiful UB girl basketeers defeated a highly publicized University faculty squad by a score of 26-24.

Joan Berglund, an eye-filling forward, broke a 24-24 tie seconds before the final whistle by intercepting an attempted pass by faculty star, Slap-Shot Sherry, and driving in for an easy lay-up that won the game.

This thrill packed game was the season's opener for the girl's varsity squad. The shapely UB cagesters, coached by Tony Salvucci, play regularly in the local YWCA basketball league, and last year compiled a record of six victories against four defeats.

Before their upset, the faculty squad boasted a somewhat questionable record of four victories and no defeats. This victory string included wins over the South American Amazons, South African Glamazons, Women's Home for the Blind, and The Women's Faculty team.

Defensive star for the faculty team was Off-Side Chapman. The girls seemed to have trouble moving around him. Other faculty standouts were: Slap-Shot Sherry, Wild-Bill Allen, Double-Dribble Rasmussen, Slippery-Lou Suchensky, Short-Shot Iannone, Dead-Eye Glines, Hook-Shot Kondratovich, Glue-Foot Cohen, Set-Shot Heath, Lay-Up Palumbo, Gunner Wolff—all under the direction of Coach Re-bound Ropp. Joan Berglund and Jeanette Randall scored all 26 of the girls points.

TS and APO Tie for Lead In IM Bowling Loop Race

Bowling has entered the intramural scene with Alpha Phi Omega and Theta Sigma tied for the early lead in matches played to date.

A. P. O. gained its first place position by virtue of a forfeit win over Beta Alpha.

Theta Sigma, inspired by a brilliant 300 total rolled by Bill O'Brien, chastened Marina Hall despite good pin-busting by Al Lepow and Dick Domnitz.

The All Stars, led by the 287 pinfall total of Jack Gyurkovics, took the measure of a highly regarded Kappa Beta Rho team, Ted Huminski anchored his Phi Alpha team, last year's champs, to a three to one decision over a fighting Alpha Delta Omega combine.

The B. B. J.'s, Alpha Gamma Phi, and Sigma Lambda Chi have yet to roll their initial matches.

The matches take place at the Pequonnock Alleys at 3:30 P. M. on Tuesdays.

Winning Hoop Streak Stopped by Panzer Five

After a string of nine successive wins, the University of Bridgeport basketball team finally lost one to unbeaten Panzer College of East Orange, N. J., by the score of 73-63. Playing in the Panzer Gym Saturday night, the gruelling schedule began to take effect on the Knights, and the Panthers ran up a quick 20-13 lead at the quarter. Led by 6'6" Joe Guthrie, the New Jersey quintet virtually controlled both backboards at the outset, and after overcoming a short-lived 3-0 lead by UB, were never headed.

Lou Saccone, the "Stalwart Rock", took command of Bridgeport's attack, but could not cut into the Panzer lead.

Early in the second period, John Marra dropped in a quick six points on two field goals and two fouls, and the gap gradually widened until at half time the score stood at 43-27 in favor of the Panthers.

True to form, the basketballers from Bridgeport started their second half drive, led by Dick LaBash, Stan Silverberg took control of the backboards, the fast break started to click, and once again it looked like UB was going to come from behind, but the period ended with Bridgeport still seven points short, 57-50.

Upon the start of the fourth quarter, LaBash again took charge and the Knights kept pace with Panzer. With the score 68-63, the drive was stopped, and Bridgeport lost its last chance when the Seaman, Marshall Lowe, and Dick LaBash all fouled within minutes of each other. The New Jerseyites froze the ball with three minutes remaining, and the game ended 73-63, the Panthers on top.

John Marra led the scoring parade with 24 points, converting ten out of thirteen free throws and seven field goals. Flashy Dick LaBash led the losing cause with 23 points, and Lou Saccone tallied 19.

Friday night at Trenton, N. J., the Purple Knights upset a highly favored team from Rider College by the score of 69-65. Previously undefeated, the Roughriders boasted of a 4-0 record.

Close all the way, neither team had a decided advantage and at half time the score was tied at 32 apiece. In the second half, UB gradually pulled ahead until the final score was 69-65. Moe Tener, high-scoring forward of Rider College, led the losing cause by dropping in 25 points, while Lou Saccone gathered 26 for our lads.

Two UB records were set during the game, one an all-time school record and the other a season's record. Stylish Gus Seaman literally controlled the backboards throughout the game, coming up with 26 rebounds to break

SPA, UCU Leading IM Hoop Loops

Rivalry, spirit, fight, and good basketball that even the varsity might have trouble matching are featured regularly in intramural competition as the cage teams vie for the lead position.

Sigma Phi Alpha, led by Frank Castellucci, "Mr. Basketball" of 1950-51, has taken the lead in the Fraternity League with a record of three victories against no defeats.

The Kappa Beta Rho five, led by the Casey brothers and Vinny Milawski, rests in second place with an early season record of two wins against no defeats.

The Independent League is deadlocked, U. C. U., racing along the victory trail under the guidance of high-scoring Larry Ricciarelli, is tied with the All-Stars aggregation headed by Fred Feibich.

the all-time Bridgeport record. The Rock's 26 points set the season's scoring record, surpassing the previous high by 1. The nine game winning streak also tied the all-time UB record. The season's record now stands at 11-2.

On Saturday night, Jan. 26, Bridgeport travels to Hempstead, L. I., where they will tangle with the highly rated quintet from Hofstra College. On Feb. 2, the Knights will again travel to New Jersey to oppose Fairleigh-Dickinson, and on Feb. 6 will play a return engagement with New Haven State Teachers College at New Haven.

Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

NONE of the girls were wild about this Wildcat. His hair looked like something the cat dragged in! "I'm feline mighty low," he told his Paw. "Every Tomcat, Dick and Harry on campus has dates but me!" "Yes, Siam aware of that, son. You need Wildroot Cream-Oil hair tonic. All the cats are using it because it's non-alcoholic. Contains soothing Lanolin. Relieves annoying dryness. Removes loose, ugly dandruff. Help you puss — I mean paw the Finger-Nail Test." So Paul got Wildroot Cream-Oil, and now he's the most popular Persian at school. Purr-haps it's what you need! Take some small change out of your kitty and pussy-foot it to the nearest drug or toilet goods counter for a bottle 6c tube of Wildroot Cream-Oil. And ask for professional applications at your favorite barber shop. Hurry — meow is the time!
